

Company Background

For more detailed information about on Piet Boon®, please refer to our company background. The company background can be sent per e-mail by request.

Interviews

Piet Boon® is a global operating multi disciplinary design studio. Piet Boon and Karin Meyn are therefore not always available for interviews in person due to their traveling schedules. In the case that an interview in person is not possible, please send your interview questions per e-mail and we will respond within three working days.

Images

Piet Boon® has royalty-free project and portrait high-res images. These images can be issued for press purposes. Photography and styling credits must be given once images are issued.

Text & image review

Piet Boon® holds the right to review text and image prior to publication for fact checking purposes. Due to the number of requests we receive, text and image reviewing –depending on the size of the text and number of images- takes up to three working days. Piet Boon® holds the right to declare text and image unfit for use, when these do not agree with the Piet Boon® brand identity.

Archive

Piet Boon® is proud of the publications that feature our work. We would therefore appreciate it, if you could send us a pdf/hard copy of the relevant editorial for archive purposes.

Please do not hesitate to contact us for other questions and more information.
